Truthfully, now – a bar lives from the magic of its atmosphere, from the barman, from its interior and from the music that is played there. Receiving a well-poured glass of beer with a nice head or a perfectly crafted cocktail is one thing; attraction comes from the other things: the special aspect, the unique feature, and the authenticity not found everywhere. That is another reason why we still cherish our man at the piano and invite you to dance.

5.30 pm

Concert

String quartets, jazz sessions, flamenco sounds, dialogue concerts – music is a language that everyone understands and that shows itself in manifest facets; the bandwidth of the instrumental listening experience is wide and, time and time again, it is exciting to see how a certain magic spreads through the room when the first tone is heard and how the vibrations put the audience in a special mood, from spellbound to relaxed.

The House of Games

Pool and roulette; backgammon and bridge; classic dice, card and board games; or new parlour games such as Exit Games – the upper floor of the House of Games opens up a variety of entertainment possibilities for rainy days or when one wants to withdraw a bit. Or simply whenever one feels like playing something; some people have reawakened an old passion here. Try your luck!
